FOI: 819

Dear A Gallagher

REQUEST FOR INFORMATION

Thank you for your request for information submitted via the whatdotheyknow.com website on 11 October 2022. You have asked for the following information:

“The number of ex police officers, retired officers of any rank that were employed by Police Scotland or any other Police Constabulary within The United Kingdom and Northern Ireland that are currently employed by PIRC as Police Investigators?”

The PIRC has considered that this is a request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (“FOISA”).

An application for information held by public authorities under section 1 of FOISA requires that a public authority release all information held, subject to any applicable exemptions. Public authorities have 20 working days following the date of receipt of the request to respond to an applicant. We received your request on 12 October and are obliged to respond in accordance with FOISA by 9 November 2022.

Under Section 17 of FOISA I can confirm we hold this information. The number of ex police officers previously employed by any police force in the United Kingdom currently employed by PIRC is 40.

YOUR RIGHT TO REQUEST A REVIEW

You have a right under the Act to request a review of this decision. If you wish to exercise this right, you must do so within forty working days following the date of receipt of this decision. Your request for a review must be in writing and you must specify your name and address for correspondence. You must also identify the decision that you wish to be reviewed. Should you wish to request a review, please address your request to:
